"NOW" is the follow up to Kyle Eastwood's first CANDID recording, the critically acclaimed "PARIS BLUE". Kyle is the son of the Oscar winning actor & director Clint Eastwood and is now an esteemed bass player and band leader.

Kyle came to join CANDID whilst he was living in London in the early part of 2004 where he made the acquaintance of Alan Bates, CEO of CANDID RECORDS. Its not only as a band leader and bass player that has brought Kyle success. He regularly scores music for film and in 2004 and 2005 he contributed music for two international hit films Mystic River and Million Dollar Baby respectively, both of which went on to win multiple Oscars.

"NOW" is a mix of up beat vocal tracks, which features the voice and compositional expertise of Ben Cullum (brother and songwriter to Jamie Cullum) and a collection of chilled sleek contemporary jazz instrumentals. Any of the three vocal tracks that feature Ben could be a hit balancing well with the soulful sound of Ben's voice against that of Kyle's bass. Michael Stevens also features on vocals with the breathtakingly dream-like rendition of Sting's classic "Every Little Thing She Does Is Magic".

This record is a collaboration which reads like a who's who of the current British pop/jazz scene. It features the BBC British Jazz Award winning pianist Andrew McCormack with Ralph Salmins on drums, who has worked with everyone from Madonna to Macy Gray and ace London musicians Graeme Flowers and Dave O'Higgins on trumpet and tenor saxophone respectively.
